Gibraltar, December 29. N. S. This Day a French Prize was brought in here by Her Majesty's Ships, the Rumney, Captain Coney, the Foy, Captain Laistock, and the Milford, Captain Stanhope, Commanders: They having Intelligence of a French Ship, sailed to the Eastward the 26th Instant; the next Morning they made the Bay of Tetuan, and thence made the best of their way for Malaga, where they appeared off that Port about 8 a Clock in the Morning, the 28th, under French Colours. The Ship they had Intelligence of being close-hawled up to the Mould, and under Command of the Cannon of the Town, Captain Coney resolved to go in with his own Ship and fetch her off: Accordingly he ent'red into the Bay under French Jack and Pendent, and afterwards proceeded up to the said Ship, and dropt Anchor within Pistol-shot of her: While he prepared to fire into her, there came off the Shank's Boat to compliment him as a French Captain, and he seized upon the Crew, which was commanded by the Teniente de Guarda, Major, and then fired a Broadside into the French Man, and after that two more, which obliged most of the French Men to quit the Ship; so he sent his Boats aboard her: All the Cannon of the Town kept playing on him, which were about 50; however he brough off his Prize in spight of all their Fire, and without the Loss of one Man: She proved to be a Prize of considerable Value.

Lisbon, Jan. 15. N. S. We have received an Account from Valentia, That a Party of our Troops from thence attacked one of the Enemy, near 2000 strong, and entirely defeated them; after which our Men took Maquinenza, a considerable Pass upon the River Ebro, wherein was a Garison of about 400 Men.

Milan, Jan 11. N. S. Prince Eugene has given Orders for the drawing together from their Quarters all the Dragoons of the Imperial Army under his Command, who, together with a Body of 5000 Foot, will be employed in the Siege of our Castle. Several Pieces of heavy Cannon, designed for that Service, are arrived, and the rest is daily expected. The other necessary Preparations are carried on in the mean time with all possible Application; so that we hope
